

Remember:

The verb to sit means to occupy a spot. Its forms are sit, sits, sat, sitting.

The verb to set means to put or place. Its forms are set, sets, set, setting.

Directions: Cross out the incorrect word.

1. Please (sit, set) these sheets of music on the piano.
2. Where do you want to (sit, set)?
3. If possible, Mr. and Mrs. Jones would like to (sit, set) together.
4. When I go to the movies, I like to (sit, set) in an aisle seat.
5. He (set, sat) his phone on the table before he left.
6. She had just (sat, set) down when the doorbell rang.
7. We (sat, set) in the owner's box at the Dolphins' game.
8. Did you (sit, set) the plant by the door?
9. I don't know where she (sat, set) the keys last night.
10. Do not (sit, set) down because we have work to do.
11. Clay (sat, set) the television to automatically shut off at midnight.
12. Don't just (sit, set) there. It's time to (sit, set) the table.
13. We were (sitting, setting) in the front row at the concert.
14. Where were you (sitting, setting) when the alarm sounded?
15. We didn't know that anyone was (sitting, setting) there.
16. Mary was (sitting, setting) the table when our company arrived.
17. The teacher told the students to (sit, set) down when the bell rang.
18. We like (sitting, setting) around the fire when we go camping.
19. The sun was (sitting, setting) when we arrived at the lake.
20. Harry (sat, set) the glass on the floor.
21. The verb to (sit, set) means to occupy a spot.
22. The verb to (sit, set) means to put or place.
23. She was (sitting, setting) in the back seat and telling me how to drive.
24. She was (sitting, setting) the tools on the shelf when it fell.
25. Where do you want me to (sit, set) these boxes?